Annexure A—Glossary of termsControlling Persons

The term “Controlling Persons” means the natural persons who exercise control over an entity.

For a legal person, this is the natural person(s) who have a controlling ownership interest dependent on the ownership structure of the legal person which is usually identified on the basis of a threshold. Where no natural person(s) exercises control through ownership interests, the Controlling Person(s) of the entity will be the natural person(s) who exercises control of the entity through other means. Where no natural person(s) is identified as exercising control of the Entity, the Controlling Person(s) of the Entity will be the natural person(s) who holds the position of senior managing official.

In the case of a trust, the controlling persons are the settlor(s), the trustee(s), the protector(s) (if any), the beneficiary(ies) or class(es) of beneficiaries, and any other natural person(s) exercising ultimate effective control over the trust.

For any other legal arrangement that is not a trust, such term means persons in equivalent or similar positions to the settlor(s), the trustee(s), the protector(s) (if any), the beneficiary(ies) or class(es) of beneficiaries of a trust, and any other natural person(s) exercising ultimate effective control over a trust.
